Wear What U Want Day

for Royal Manchester Children's Hospital Charity
Friday 7th May 2010

Register your school today to be in with a chance of winning a flying visit from England and Everton football star, Philip Neville!

royal manchester children's hospital charity supporting excellence in treatment, care and research

Dress to impress!

Join the North West's largest non uniform day to make a real difference to the lives of poorly children and their families from across the North West and beyond.

Wear What U Want Day is open to all schools – primary or secondary – and it is really easy to get involved.

Register before 16 April 2010 and your school could be one of only four that footballer Philip Neville will visit in May to thank pupils personally for taking part. Along with his wife Julie, Philip will arrive at each school by helicopter to talk to pupils about his experiences as an England, Manchester United and Everton footballer. Pupils will get the chance to participate in a Q & A session with Philip as well as learn more about Royal Manchester Children's Hospital Charity and how their support will make a real and lasting difference to the lives of the children that will use the new hospital.

If you're not able to take part in a non uniform day then why not opt for a Wear It Green Day instead!

All participating schools will be sent a free fundraising pack including posters, stickers, collection boxes/cubes and a fundraising ideas sheet. What's more, every school that registers will be entered into a second prize draw to win £1000 worth of Tesco for Schools and Clubs equipment.

So go on, register your school today!

To register simply complete the form on the reverse of this leaflet.

Your support will benefit children in your area.

Royal Manchester Children's Hospital Charity raises funds to ensure continued excellence in treatment, care and research at the largest single site children's hospital in the UK.

We support projects which aim to make life a little easier for children and their families, particularly when they have long or frequent stays in hospital. We do this through projects like creating a more child-friendly hospital environment, or providing highly specialised equipment to improve diagnosis and treatment of children. We also support research projects to improve our understanding of children's illnesses.

For more information about the charity or the other ways you or your school can get involved, please call 0161 276 4522 or visit www.royalmanchesterchildrenshospitalcharity.org.uk

With your help, we can ensure that Royal Manchester Children's Hospital is not only the largest children's hospital in the country, but also the best.
